VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

Morning and evening services were well attended. Five additions were made to the church. Dr. T. H. Ewing preached at night. We are indeed glad to see so many children attend our services. Last Sunday morning there were thirty-eight children. It should be the duty of every parent to go to church on the Sabbath, and take their children with them, and by so doing many girls will be saved and many boys will be kept away from places undesirable, and instead of children bringing disgrace upon their parents, peace and joy will come to them. Parents take warning. The great war among other nations may be God's method of warning us. Let us train our children in the way they should go and when they are old they will not depart from it. They will not only make good and loyal citizens, but true and devoted Christians.

NOTICE.

We, The Old Kentucky Amusement Co., beg to announce that starting on September 23, there will be one of the largest contests of its kind in the history of the two cities. ST. STEPHEN'S BAPTIST CHURCH.

The St. Stephen's Baptist opened their service at 11 a. m. with praise meeting led by Deacon Collins. The pastor preached an excellent sermon from John 15:1. "Abide in the Vine" was the subject, after which a few remarks were delivered by Mrs. J. J. Abington, State Missionary. At 6:00 p. m. the Ladies' Mission Circle held their regular meeting. At 7:30 p. m., service was opened in usual form. The pastor preached on "Revealed Religion," and was enjoyed by all present. The Baptist State Convention will convene at the St. Stephen's Baptist church, Tuesday, October 13, 1914. All addresses will be delivered Tuesday evening. On Sunday evening, October 11, the pastor will preach. Hon. A. W. Lloyd, Grand Chancellor of K. of P. of Missouri, will deliver an address. Progress Lodge No. 43 will be out in full uniform. Everybody is invited to attend.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.

Mrs. C. R. McDowell, Grand Matron of the Herodotes of Jericho, will be at the Second Baptist Church Sunday morning at 11:00, and has a message for the women and will be pleased to see all women of this city. The Women's Baptist State Convention met and Master William Jackson, Misses Rector, Bass, Jordan and Lewis; Mesdames Gilmore, the mother of the choir; Burnett, Birch, Clayton, Washington, Glass, Whitaker, Jackson, Hammett and Johnson; Messrs. Whittier, Spruell, Holloway, Boston, Johnson, Dugan, Moore, Weston and Prof. Jackson, director; invited guests were Mesdames Whittier, Jett and Sherrill, and Messrs. Armstrong and Gilmore.

Such a pleasing and congenial host and hostess as Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Moore are hard to find and the Allen Chapel choir is very grateful to them for this afternoon of real pleasure and hopes to have another invitation to their home soon.

DISTILLED ESSAY NO. III.

Earthen Jugs.

By Vincent Longan.
Attention cannot be called too frequently to the question, "What is man that thou art mindful of him?" Like the ancient city of Thebes, one may enter it from gates on every side. We shall endeavor to enter into an answer to the question propounded by way of our subject, fortified as it is by the question, "Mankind are earthen jugs with spirits in them." Man, the earthen jug to which we refer, is the name of power which rises above all and the spirit in him gives to every one the right to be that which God meant he should be.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, it has so pleased the Omnipotent in His allwise arrangements to call from labor to reward, the father of our co-worker, Dr. L. M. Tillman, and

Whereas, Officer Tillman has so faithfully served in the different walks of life, viz., first for his country in the protection of the welfare of the United States during the Spanish-American war; second in civil life as a patrolman for a number of years, protecting the welfare of the city of Kansas City, Mo.

Giving up his life as a sacrifice in being exposed to the various changes in the climate of the city, endangering his health as he went in cold, wet and rainy days as well as the warm, dry and sunny days, and, third, as a father and husband, looking far ahead, as it were, with the eye of an eagle, so as to observe danger in miniature, standing, as the adamant pillars of Gibraltar, with the strength of Samson, warding off such dangers;

Providing for the family as only father can, bringing sunshine in the day of sadness.

Be It Resolved, That we, the Interests and nurses of the General Hospital, tender our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family, and especially to our co-worker, Dr. L. M. Tillman. Be It Resolved, We invoke the blessing of the Almighty upon the family, administering the family to put their trust in Him, who is Father of the fatherless, and a strong support in the time of trouble.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be given to the family, a copy to the Kansas City papers, and a copy to the fraternal orders.

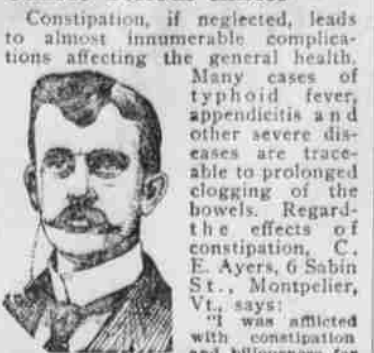

Respectfully submitted,
DR. A. F. RADFORD, Chairman,
MISS B. C. HANNA, Secretary, Committee.

A very enjoyable affair was the "Outing" given Allen Chapel choir last Sunday afternoon at the pretty bungalow and on the beautiful lawn of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Moore, in South Park. Immediately after morning services, the ladies and gentlemen who constituted the choir, faces beaming with anticipated pleasure and each carrying a well filled basket, boarded a car for South Park, arriving at the Moore's residence promptly at 3 p. m. The ladies at once spread their snowy tablecloths on the lawn and placed luncheon fit for a queen. Everybody was seated on the ground in truly picnic style. There was chicken, fried, stewed, baked and fricasseed; boiled ham, the taste of which will not soon be forgotten; deviled eggs; fruits; cherry pie like mother used to make; salads of every description; lemonade that seemed to be drawn from the fountain of youth and many other good things too numerous to mention. Scarcely had Prof. A. M. Wilson finished the invoking of divine blessings when Prof. Jackson, who was seated about the center of the group, said "Please pass the chicken." It is known that Mr. Holloway is about the tallest member of the choir, but his splendid "reach" was not realized until dinner was under way. Mr. Whittier was heard to say, "Misses Rector and Lewis and Mr. Weston are the smallest members of the choir, but Lord, their capacity would make Prof. Wilson green with envy." Dr. Johnson is a great talker, but was silent "as the grave" until dinner was over. Mesdames Hammett and Whittier had a well-beaten path around the group of diners, in order that they might get a taste of everything and miss nothing.

About 5 o'clock Mr. Moore disappeared and when he reappeared he was laden with watermelons, large, juicy and red, which the happy picnicers hastily devoured. After this Prof. Jackson thought it best to bring the choir to town, lest something else to eat be brought in sight, in which case he knew there would be no singing at the evening service. Reaching Allen Chapel at 7 p. m., the choir thought to crown the day's enjoyment by serenading the pastor, Rev. Thomas, and his guests, Bishop Heard, by singing jubilee songs. This they did and their Graces listened with sincere appreciation.

Those who constituted this merry party were: Little Miss Edna Ham-

Constipation, if Neglected, Causes Serious Illness

Constipation, if neglected, leads to almost incurable complications affecting the general health. Many cases of typhoid fever, appendicitis and other severe diseases are traceable to prolonged clogging of the bowels. Regarding the effects of constipation, C. E. Ayers, 6 Sabin St., Montpelier, Vt., says: "I was afflicted with constipation and suffering for years, and at times became so bad I would become unconscious. I have been found in that condition many times. Physicians did not seem to be able to do me any good. I would become weak and for days at a time could do no work. Not long ago I got a box of Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets, and after using them found I had never tried anything that acted in such a mild and effective manner. I believe I have at last found the remedy that suits my case."

Thousands of people are sufferers from habitual constipation and while possibly realizing something of the danger of this condition, yet neglect too long to employ proper curative measures until serious illness often results. The advice of all physicians is, "keep your bowels clean," and it's good advice.

Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are sold by all druggists, at 25 cents a box containing 25 doses. If not found satisfactory, your money is returned.
